

Acts 10:34-48

1. If a family from another country moved in next door, how might you welcome them to the neighborhood?
2. When was the first time you faced prejudice?
3. In what way was Peter's understanding of God changed by his vision? (10:34–35)
4. If you had a vision like Peter's, what deep-seated prejudices would you be called on to get rid of?
5. What was Peter's message to the group? (10:34–43)
6. How does this passage challenge our understanding of who is included in God's plan of salvation?
7. What does this scripture reveal about God's impartiality and how it relates to our relationships with others?
8. How could your pastor benefit from an encounter with Cornelius and Peter?
9. How can your church be open to the power of the Holy Spirit in a new way?
10. "Obedience delayed is disobedience." Do you need to stop delaying and start obeying in some way?